POLICE SEARCH FOR GIRL SWALLOWED UP HERE

Detectives began a systematic search today for Edith Schubert, beautiful 17-year-old Brookfield, Ill., girl, who left for Chicago last Friday and apparently has been swallowed up in the city.

Miss Schubert was connected with a church organization and was enthusiastic over social settlement work. She came to Chicago, intending to obtain work as a stenographer and then become a social worker. The police believe she may be a victim of white slavers.

OH, NO!

She held her sweet mouth up to him and then remarked, to-wit:
"You may print a kiss on my lips, dear Jim,
But you mustn't publish it!"
